Andrei Dubovskov, President and Chief Executive Officer, commented on the results:

"MTS again delivered a strong set of results as we continue to deliver on our 3D strategy of data, digital and dividends. While Group revenue slightly declined for the period, which was shorter than last year due to the leap year, we continue to see positive underlying trends in our core markets in Russia and Ukraine through an overall growth in usage improved profitability. In Russia, the stabilization of our roaming base and an overall increase in usage contributed to a nearly 1% growth in mobile service revenue. In Ukraine, we saw close to 3% revenue growth year-over-year as we continue to develop data customers and build out our 3G networks.

"However, we realized significant profitability gains in both markets. For the Group, OIBDA was up 1.8%, but in Russia, we realized 2.4% growth in OIBDA largely due to the higher-profitability of roaming, as well as relatively less of an impact in our retail business to Q1 2016. In Ukraine, our yearlong focus on profitability has improved our margins to nearly 46% as OIBDA grew 62%. Key factors in Ukraine include scale benefits related to our 3G rollout and rebranding under the Vodafone brand, as well as rebalancing our bundled voice and data tariffs.

"While these results are encouraging to start the year, we reaffirm our Group revenue and OIBDA guidance of -2 to +2%. We may be trending at the upper range of this guidance, but the macroeconomic situation, including currencies throughout our markets, remains volatile, and the competitive outlook – despite steps we took during the period to shut down stores and eliminate unlimited tariff plans – remains uncertain. Overall, however, we see a number of positive underlying trends in our market, which bode well for our outlook."

CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Group revenue decreased 1.1% year-over-year to RUB 104.7 bln. Part of the decrease is attributable to the effect of a leap year in 2016, without which revenue would largely be flat. However, voice and data usage growth in Russia, coupled with slightly higher handset sales, supported revenue growth in this key market. This offset the negative effect of the strengthening ruble in relation to group currencies as the contribution from foreign subsidiaries overall weakened.

Group OIBDA rose 1.8% year-over-year to RUB 41.8 bln. The growth was driven by strong mobile revenue, optimization of costs related to roaming and a positive year-over-year contribution from Ukraine. The strengthening ruble limited the contribution from foreign subsidiaries, but underlying trends in these markets remained stable. Group OIBDA margin stood at 40.0%.

MTS delivered a first-quarter group net profit of RUB 12.5 bln, down from Rub 14.5 bln a year earlier. The drop was attributable smaller noncash FOREX gain due to relative stability of the ruble and higher depreciation and amortization costs because of our network expansion in key markets like Russia and Ukraine.

At the end of the reporting period, total debt stood at RUB 271.2 bln (net of financial leases and debt issuance costs). In Q1 2017, MTS issued two exchange-traded bonds for a total amount of RUB 20 bln. The funds were used for general corporate purposes. During the period, MTS paid down RUB 17.4 bln in debt.

Debt Repayment Schedule

The ratio of net debt to LTM OIBDA was 1.2x, at a comfortable level to preserve the Company's financial strength and investment capacity.

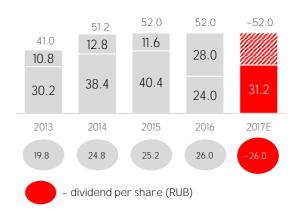

Non-ruble debt comprises roughly 18% of our gross debt, which largely consists of two outstanding Eurobonds due in 2020 and 2023. MTS actively uses hedging instruments to limit currency exposure to its outstanding bilateral debt. Likewise, MTS uses hard-currency deposits and other liquid instruments, including repurchasing Eurobonds both directly from investors and on the secondary market, to offset its non-ruble debt exposure and limit cash carrying costs.

Gross/Net Debt Structure by Currency<sup>4</sup>

During the period, the MTS Board of Directors proposed to 2017 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders the payment of dividends in the amount of RUB 15.6 per ordinary MTS share (RUB 31.2 per ADR), or a total of RUB 31.17 billion (RUB 31,174,752,570), based on the full-year 2016 financial results.

Historical Dividend Payout (RUB bln)

In April 2016, MTS disclosed that it would consider spending up to RUB 30 bln over three years to complement its dividend payout with other ways to enhance shareholder returns. As part of this consideration, MTS launched two modified Dutch auction tenders in Q4 2016 and Q1 2017 to acquire 17.5 mln shares for an overall cost of roughly RUB 5.0 bln. Simultaneously, MTS entered into a binding agreement with Sistema, its controlling shareholder, to acquire number of shares proportional to Sistema's ownership stake at the prices determined by the market. In total, MTS acquired 35.1 mln shares for a consideration of RUB 10.0 bln.

In Q1 2017, MTS's capital expenditures declined almost 40% year-over-year to RUB 11.1 bln. The ratio of CAPEX to revenue was 10.6%. Investments declined in both Russia and Ukraine as the Company reduced its network investments in LTE and 3G as respective coverage has grown considerably in each market. Overall, MTS aims to reduce CAPEX to RUB 80.0 bln for the year, which will enhance free cash flow, while ensuring that MTS maintains the most capable networks in its markets of operation.

Total revenue in Russia grew 0.9% year-overyear and amounted RUB 97.1 bln. Despite the effect of a leap year, mobile service revenue grew 0.8% due to higher voice and data usage. Similarly, the decrease in fixed revenue was attributable largely to the leap year, but overall B2C growth continued to offset weakness in other non-consumer segments. Handset sales rose slightly, which also supported revenue performance, while the impact from the integration business was negative.

Russia OIBDA grew 2.4% to RUB 39.5 bln. This reflects the positive revenue dynamics, a relatively stronger ruble and cost optimization in roaming. The OIBDA margin reached 40.7%.

In the mobile business, revenues increased to RUB 71.7 bln driven by continuing growth in mobile data usage. Though overall roaming revenue continued to decline year-over-year, in Q1 2017, MTS witnessed positive signs in international roaming. The recent decline in voice and SMS usage in roaming has seemingly stabilized, and the Company continues to see positive trends in data roaming. Change in Roaming Traffic Relative to Q1 2015

Our subscriber base in Russia slightly decreased to 79 mln subscribers due to seasonality.

In MTS's fixed business, revenue decreased slightly by 1.2% year-over-year to RUB 15.2 bln. The decline was attributable to the decrease in revenue in the B2O segment and the subsequent lower contribution from interconnect revenues. The Company's B2C segment showed a marginal increase despite a continuing decline in the fixedtelephony segment. Nevertheless, the Company's B2C broadband and pay-TV markets continued to grow. According to Group estimates, MTS' market shares in Moscow increased in both home broadband and pay-TV to 35% and 31% respectively as we leverage the network capabilities of our fiber-optic networks to offer unmatched speed, quality and services.

B2B+B2G+B2O	7.6	7.8	-2.8%

Revenue from MTS's integration business fell 43.7% year-over-year to RUB 1.4 bln. This reflects the fact that MTS has completed most of the contracts serviced by NVision prior to its acquisition.

The Company realized a 5.9% increase in sales of goods supported by both sales of handsets and accessories and sales of software products. Sales of handsets and accessories that account for over 90% of total sales of goods grew by 2.1% year-over-year to RUB 10.3 bln due to the further implementation of MTS' retail strategy in Russia. In Q1 2017, MTS continued to reshape its handsets portfolio switching towards more expensive devices due to rising customer demand. With greater access to flexible payment plans and better finance options, customers are increasingly opting for advanced smartphones with a wide range of functionality (e.g. high-

margin	45.8%	29.1%	16.7pp
Net profit	0.5	0.3	92.7%
margin	18.7%	10.0%	8.7pp

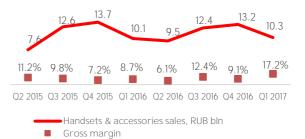

The Group continues to actively expand its 3G network coverage in Ukraine. During the reporting period, it installed 366 3G base stations, double the number installed during the same period in 2016. Client adoption of 3G services pushed revenue up by 2.9% to UAH 2.8 bln, while network improvement stimulates higher data consumption. The Group witnessed growth in the number of data users (+18% year-over-year) and the penetration of bundled voice and data tariff plans.

OIBDA rose 62.0% year-over-year to UAH 1.3 bln, while the OIBDA margin reached 45.8%. Throughout 2016, MTS viewed OIBDA growth as part of its key strategic priority in the market, and this marks the fourth consecutive quarter where MTS has realized growth in OIBDA and OIBDA margin. These improvements are largely quality cameras, LTE-enabled, large screens). Higher handsets pricing, coupled with the strengthening ruble helped to enhance both handset sales and profitability in the reporting period.

Handsets and Accessories Sales and Gross Margin

MTS continued promoting data usage by stimulating the migration of our customers from feature phones to smartphones and providing best connectivity experience. As a result, smartphone penetration in all mobile phones on MTS network was 56%, while mobile internet penetration reached nearly 50%.

attributable to higher-margin revenue growth and scale benefits as we expanded its 3G coverage. MTS also rebalanced tariffs introduced in 2016, many of which provided reduced roaming rates for new clients. The Group ended the period with 20.9 mln subscribers in Ukraine.

OTHER FOREIGN MARKETS: ARMENIA, TURKMENISTAN, BELARUS

Armenia Highlights (AMD bln)	Q1 2017	Q1 2016	Change %
Revenue	12.9	14.2	-9.1%
OIBDA	5.3	5.6	-5.1%
margin	41.4%	39.7%	1.7рр
Net (loss) / profit	-1.2	0.2	n/a margin	n/a	1.7	n/a

In Armenia, revenue declined by 9.1% yearover-year to AMD 12.9 bln. Macroeconomic factors continue to dampen usage of services such as international calling and roaming, while a fall in remittance payments continue to affect the market. These factors also weakens usage of core voice and data products.

Increased pressure on the market has also lead to an increase in competition, which is one factor that explains 5.1% year-over-year decline in OIBDA to AMD 5.3 bln. Overall, the OIBDA margin for the reporting period remains strong at 41.4% as the Group continuously focus on ways to improve efficiency in this challenging operating environment.

The Group's subscriber base in Armenia declined slightly to 2.1 mln, which reflects general seasonal trends.

Turkmenistan Highlights (TMT mln)	Q1 2017	Q1 2016	Change %
Revenue	65.2	67.3	-3.1%
OIBDA	23.0	23.9	-3.8%
margin	35.3%	35.5%	-0.2pp
Net profit	10.6	11.3	-6.2%
margin	16.3%	16.8%	-0.5pp

In Turkmenistan, revenue declined by 3.1% yearover-year to TMT 65.2 mln. Despite a 4.7% gain in subscribers from the end of 2016 to 1.7 mln, macroeconomic-driven factors, which impact overall voice and data usage, continue to lessen customer value.

OIBDA declined in line with revenue by 3.8% year-over year to TMT 23 mln. Though the Group has made efforts to increase network capacity and accommodate a greater number of customers on its network, macroeconomic and competitive pressures continue to present challenges to significantly increasing scale benefits. Overall, our OIBDA margin in Turkmenistan was 35.3%.

Belarus Highlights (BYN mln)	Q1 2017	Q1 2016	Change %
Revenue	169.5	148.9	13.9%
OIBDA	79.5	68.1	16.8%
margin	46.9%	45.7%	1.2pp
Net profit	51.9	39.7	30.7%
margin	30.6%	26.7%	3.9pp

In Belarus, MTS revenue rose nearly 14% yearover-year to BYN 169.5 mln, due to the effect of price increases introduced in 2016 on data services and subscription fees, as well as stronger performance in retail. OIBDA grew 16.8% to BYN 79.5 mln backed on growth in data usage due to rising penetration of bundled voice & data tariff plans, as well as the effect of price increases introduced in 2016. OIBDA performance was also supported by a strengthening of the BYN in relation to the USD and EUR. Overall, the OIBDA margin in Belarus remained strong at 46.9%.

Non-IFRS financial measures. This presentation includes financial information prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, or IFRS, as well as other financial measures referred to as non-IFRS. The non-IFRS financial measures should be considered in addition to, but not as a substitute for, the information prepared in accordance with IFRS. Due to the rounding and translation practices, Russian ruble and functional currency margins, as well as other non-IFRS financial measures, may differ.

Operating Income Before Depreciation and Amortization (OIBDA) and OIBDA margin. OIBDA represents operating income before depreciation and amortization. OIBDA margin is defined as OIBDA as a percentage of our net revenues. OIBDA may not be similar to OIBDA measures of other companies, is not a measurement under IFRS and should be considered in addition to, but not as a substitute for, the information contained in our consolidated statement of profit or loss. We believe that OIBDA provides useful information to investors because it is an indicator of the strength and performance of our ongoing business operations, including our ability to fund discretionary spending such as capital expenditures, acquisitions of mobile operators and other investments and our ability to incur and service debt. While depreciation and amortization are considered operating costs under IFRS, these expenses primarily represent the non-cash current period allocation of costs associated with long-lived assets acquired or constructed in prior periods. Our OIBDA calculation is commonly used as one of the bases for investors, analysts and credit rating agencies to evaluate and compare the periodic and future operating performance and value of companies within the wireless telecommunications industry. We use the term Adjusted for OIBDA and operating profit where there were items that do not reflect underlying operations that were excluded. OIBDA can be reconciled to our consolidated statements of profit or loss as follows:
